DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-11, 24-25, drawn to an apparatus for handling arrayed components, classified in class 700, subclass 213.
- II. Claims 2, 12-18, 22, 23, 26, drawn to an apparatus for handling arrayed components, classified in class 700, subclass 228.
- III. Claims 19-21, and 27, drawn to an apparatus for handling arrayed components, classified in class 700, subclass 213.

Inventions I and II, III are directed to related inventions. The related inventions are distinct if: (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed are not capable of use together, and are mutually exclusive. For instance, the apparatus of inventions I and III do not require: the housing section is disposed in a plurality of rows, front-back inverting device, concave section for each component housing section, or a each component is transferred to a plurality of housing sections as required in invention II. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

Inventions II and III are directed to related inventions. The related inventions are distinct if: (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed are not capable of use together, and are mutually exclusive. For instance, the invention of claims II and I, does not require the: the components include a plurality of semi-conductor elements, taping-packaging section, the front-back inverting device disposed between the component transfer device and the taping packaging section, or the two-direction moving device as required in invention III. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and/or examination burden if restriction were not required because at least the following reason(s) apply:

The invention as claimed includes multiple embodiments including distinct elements that not required in each embodiment. The embodiments require a separate search for the distinct elements as mentioned above for a thorough examination.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to Michael Huppert on Thursday, August 26, 2010 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
